And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw; and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. (2 Kings, vi: 17.) The Psalmist has beautifully said, God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. The text refers to one of these wonderful instances of providential care so often repeated in the history of the Israelitish people, and so often experienced by individuals and nations since the days of the prophets. Israel was surrounded by merciless foes determined upon her destruction. Now, the Syrians were encamped against them and formed their ambuscades at various places, expecting to entrap and cut them off. Elisha, the prophet, divinely inspired, discovered their hiding-places and kept his master informed of their movements. So often had the schemes of the enemy been defeated that the King of Syria, exasperated and puzzled, imagined that a traitor in his own...
